

of Mr. Norris. When, on motion by Mr. Turner, the preamble thereof was amended by inserting after the words, "the Great Falls of Gunpowder," in the second line thereof, the following, "near to Perry-Hall Farm."

The bill, so amended, was then passed.

On motion by Mr. Buchanan, it was Ordered, That the committee of pensions and revolutionary claims, be directed to inquire into the right of Daniel Day, to be put on the pension list, a soldier of the revolutionary war, who served under Captain Andrew Hines, and Colonel Otho Williams, and received his pay from pay-master Jacobs.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning nine o'clock.

SATURDAY, March 10th, 1827.

The house met. Were present, the same members as on yesterday. On motion by Mr. Buchanan, the reading of the proceedings of yesterday, conformably to a rule of the house, was dispensed with.

The message, adopted by this house yesterday, concurring in the proposition to appoint a joint committee of the two houses, to examine and ascertain whether there be any, and if any, what business now before the legislature, imperiously requires to be acted on at this time; and the several bills and resolutions, passed by this house yesterday, of the following titles were sent to the senate, to wit.

An act to impose and collect a tax upon such parts of the estates of persons as escape taxation, under the existing laws of this state.

An act to authorise the trustees of the poor of Charles county, to purchase land and build a new poor's house.

An act to enable the trustees of county and other schools and academies, to recover and obtain possession of the funds, and other property and effects, belonging to such schools and academies.

An act to divorce Mary Ann Darrington, and her husband William D. Darrington, of the city of Baltimore.

An act to divorce Ann Maria Bush, and her husband Robert Bush, of the city of Baltimore.

An act for the relief of George Lewis Opperman, of the city of Baltimore.

An act to divorce Elizabeth Bowen, and her husband Thomas Bowen of Baltimore county.

An act for the relief of George Dawson, of Caroline county.

An act for the relief of Hugh Elliott, of the city of Baltimore.